

Gregory M. Clark, CPA, CISA, CFE

Greg M. Clark, CPA, CISA, CFE is a Principal with the Business Compliance & Controls Group (BCCG). With more than twenty-two years experience in the audit and business compliance field, Greg has participated in all aspects of audit and financial management, including business risk assessments, internal control assessments and design, fraud investigations, corporate compliance, records retention management, contract compliance, financial planning, due diligence, internal audit and external audit. Previously, Greg was the Industry Practice Leader for Compliance Services for an international forensic financial investigations firm. Greg has also served as the Director of Financial Planning and Internal Audit for a regional integrated healthcare delivery system and as the First Vice President and Assistant Chief Financial Officer of a publicly traded financial institution. Greg began his career with a national accounting firm in the audit division and worked with a variety of industry groups and was an Associate Audit Partner with a regional accounting firm.

Greg is an internationally known speaker and has been recognized as a past Georgia CPA Society workshop leader of the year. Greg currently chairs the Professional Development Committee for the Georgia Healthcare Financial Management Association, is the Past President and chairman of the Association of Healthcare Internal Auditors (AHIA) and recipient of the 1999 AHIA Founders Award. Greg currently sits on the Georgia CPA Society CPE and Healthcare Committees.

Teaches the following:

- A Hands-on Approach to Planning, Performing and Documenting Efficient Audits
- A Hands-on Workshop for Substantive Analytical Procedures and Fraud Assessment Techniques
- A Tax Practitioner's Guide to Accounting and Reporting Issues
- Analyzing Financial Statements – How to Really Read a Statement to Manage a Business
- Audits of Defined Contribution Pension Plans
- Best of Loscalzo Conference
- Compilations and Reviews – Issues and Practical Solutions
- Deceptive Accounting Techniques – Recognizing the Warning Signs
- De-Mystifying Accounting for Consolidations, Business Acquisitions and the Equity Method
- "Detecting" Fraud – What The New SAS Really Requires
- Disclosure - The Key To Financial Statements
- Documentation Techniques for Entry Level Staff
- Four hour programs: A Comprehensive Guide to Auditing Core Business Operations and Fundamentals of Corporate Governance
- GAAP Refresher
- Implementing a Risk Based Approach to Audits
- Loscalzo's Annual FASB and AICPA Update
- Mix and Match Modules
- Practical Techniques for Cash Flow Management and Analysis
- Staff Level 1 - Entry Level Staff
- Staff Level 2 – Experienced Staff
- Staff Level 3 - In-Charge
- The Loscalzo Answer to Frequently Asked Questions in Accounting and Auditing
- The Loscalzo Answer to Frequently Asked Questions on Employee Benefit Plan Audits
- Tips on How to Review Documentation Effectively