

John W. Stottman, Jr., CPA, graduated from Arkansas Tech University in 1982, and became a CPA in 1983, and is a member of the Arkansas Society of CPA's and the AICPA. John started his accounting career with Baird Kurtz and Dobson in Ft. Smith, worked with Daugherty and Lowe, CPA's also in Ft. Smith and Jones, Rose, Campbell and Lawton in Russellville, before starting his own firm with Robert Kin Campbell in January, 1993. John's practice is mainly in tax and management advisory services. The practice also performs accounting for businesses and investment advisory services. John has a series 6 and 63 security license as well as licenses for tax deferred annuities, life insurance and mortgage broker.

John is the past president of the Arkansas Society of CPA's and has been on many committees and various offices in that organization.

John was also appointed to two terms by the Governor of Arkansas to the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas School for Mathematics and Sciences in Hot Springs as well as the Information Network of Arkansas where he is currently serving a 3 year appointment.